SHALL CHINA BE CUT UP?

Only a few days ago the Cabinet was would be for the interests of Japan, taking everything into consideration, to cause the downfall of the Manchu dynasty and split the Chinese Empiring two. But since the fall of Por Arthur the war party of Japan, which is theanti-foreign party, has had supreme control of public affairs and public policy. All other branches of the Government have shrivelled into insignificance and the soldiery are movers of the future. Of the future? Well, of

THE MONEY QUESTION. If the Government collects all its loans from the people—and if the war continues it must do so—something like 6,000,000 yen will be left in circulation 60,000,000 yen will be left in circulation as a medium of commerce — in other words, a little over $1 a head for the entire population of the Empire.

Of course much of the money called in by the Government will be immediately put into domestic circulation, but this is only true of paper money. The gold and silver will be paid out to foreign countries where the paper yen is unacceptable.

At the present time large quantities of silver and gold, many millions in fact, are being shipped out of Japan to meet war expenses, and as gold and silver disappear the currency of Japan reak Timber of India Almost in That Category.

The gathering of teak timber has been an industry ever since man of any color inhabited the country, says the Riverside Magazine, Teak grows only and temples it has held indestructible places for many generations. From the olor of sandalwood it changes with age to walnut brown. Big, unpainted bungalows standing upon pillars of wood, sided with it, shingled with it, atticed with it, defy heat and rain and grow rich upon their poverty of oil and rarnish. They stand, as brown as Autumn, out of green compounds against tumn, out of green compounds against Summer itself. Vines wrap them, flowers garnish them, years add moss and lichen, but nothing destroys save fiame. Railroad car wheels, spikes for laying track, pegs for bolts, implements of all sorts are made of teak. No one save a shipwright knows just how many parts of a ship are built from this muscle of nature, but svery one who has walked the deck of a bark or steamer has a consciousness that no amount of holystoning or dragging of cargo over or wear and tear of feet and traffic can in any ordinary sense affect a teakwood floor. The Burmese woodcarver knows his art is almost hewn in stone when he coaxes leaf and flower, sacred cow and festive cart, grotesque spirits and elves, gods and Buddhas out of rugged trunks. The little prow of the sampan shaped like a wishbone, the stern of the paddy-boat as brown with age as the maked figure upon it is with the elements, the strange plinths of pillars, the establishments of the temples, the plaything of the children—all these are carved from teak. tumn, out of green compounds against

COTTON SHOWS A GAIN.

The cotton market opened a shad better than it closed yesterday, and ruled steady. The first call included January at 5.41; February, 5.45; March, 5.50 a 5.51; April, 5.55; May, 5.61; June, 5.65; July, 5.70; August, 5.75, and September, 5.79 5.66; July, 5.79; August, 5.78, and September, 5.79.
Wheat opened with very little trading, selling here at 62 1-4c. and 58c. at Chicago for May, a slight improvement. The New York Produce Exchange and the Chicago Board of Trade will be closed Monday as well as Tuesday. Corn ruled steady, but quiet, at 52 1-4c. for May at New York and 48c. in Chicago. Oats were quiet.

If you can only be sure that a small pill will do you as much good. Doctor Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are smaller than any others, sugar-coated, easier to take and easier in the way they act and yet they really do you more good. Their refined and concentrated vegetable extracts act upon the liver in a natural way that lasts. They have a peculiar strengthening effect on the intestines. They not only relieve, but permanently cure.

In every liver, stomach, and bowel discorder—Constipation, Biliousnes, Indigention, Windy Eructations, "Risings of Food," Sick or Bilious Headaches, Sour Stomach—they're guaranteed to give satisfaction, or your money is returned.
